LIBRARY ACCESS

Library access is free and open to everyone. It is not necessary to be a member to enter.

You can look through the items on the shelves, read newspapers and magazines, watch a film in the media room, or study in the dedicated areas.

Ask the librarians if you need help finding what you're looking for.

Wi-Fi is available throughout the library, just connect to the EmiliaRomagnaWiFi network: it's simple, fast, available 24/7, free of charge, and no registration is required.

Everyone can join the library.

Membership is free and required to borrow materials and access the digital library EmiLib, and it's valid at all libraries in the Province of Modena.

To register to the library, fill in the registration form and present a valid ID.

If you are under 18, the form must also be signed by a parent or guardian.

If you return items more than 7 days late, your borrowing privileges will be temporarily suspended.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN SERVICE

If you're looking for a book that isn't available in our library, you can request it through our interlibrary loan service. Just ask a librarian for assistance.

This service is free for books from the libraries of Campogalliano, Novi di Modena, and Soliera.

For books from other libraries within the Province of Modena, there is a €4 fee. Libraries in other parts of Italy may charge different fees to cover shipping costs.
